

GLOBAL SANITATION

The World Health Organization estimates that worldwide one in seven people don't have access to safe water and one in three do not have access to a hygienic toilet. An even larger number don't have wastewater treatment plants, like ours, that clean the water every day.

The role of education

Thanks to Water 1st for these photos from areas where they are working. Check out the touch screen for other stories.

The need for sanitation

